MILLBROOK MOTORS
 Tremont Street

Circa: approximately 1760.

- 5 Bedrooms (plus what we call the "nook")
- 3½ Baths. One has a great "lion-footed" tub.
- Kitchen with dishwasher, double sink, double oven, breakfast area and Dutch door. Not to mention "hurricane stove" and "tiny" beams.
- First floor laundry room + not used to house a cow.
- Dining Room
- Family/Play room that everyone loves.

Apple blossoms, lilacs, cherry blossoms, "sitting" apples, pears and two months of honeysuckle in pet from the back door. Wild roses bloom most of the summer along the split rail fence that runs toward the water.

The moldings, paneled doors, full-eye glass, brass door fittings are the kinds of detailing you don't find much of any more.

- ▷ The sight, sounds and feel of the ocean are only a part of the charm of this 200 year old house.
- ▷ Wide plank, "pumpkin pie" floors, white, hand-painted plaster walls. Deep six over six windows. Walk-in freezer.
- ▷ There's a morning patio and an afternoon patio so you can follow the sun all summer long.
- ▷ Rumbling stone walls, split rail fences & fifty-year-old apple trees that make the spring air almost intoxicating near the house.
- ▷ There's an outside shower with hot and cold water - and a special entrance, just for tripping out children.
- ▷ The porch has to be experienced to be believed! People say it's the nicest in Duxbury. And when the weather turns bad, you just pull down the overhead "garage-type" windows.
- ▷ Although only about an acre goes with the house, what with Duxbury Bay behind you and Eagle's Nest Marsh in front, you feel as though you live in a national park.
- ▷ There's a two-car garage with an attached boat "wintering" area.
- ▷ A white picket fence encloses a small herb and Daisy garden right outside the kitchen door.

When the Nor'easters howl, the house doesn't even vibrate. But more than that, it seems to take especially well to small children, dogs, cats and the kind of family - of any size - that really enjoys being together.

THE DOCK

Swim, sail, fish or boogie. Clam and beach comb at low tide. Eels, Terns, Gulls and Harlequin crabs are your summer neighbors. Black ducks, Canada geese, Pheasant, Quail, and Mackerel - when the leaves begin to change.
